
LYCOMING COUNTY
DIVORCE UNDER 3301(D)
(parties separated for over one year; no complaint filed)
SELF-HELP KIT

REMEMBER

The law often changes. Each case is different. This self-help kit is meant to give you general information and not give you specific legal advice.

DIVORCE PROCEDURE

These forms are not designed for complicated divorce issues. To deal with these matters, you will need additional forms that are not included in this packet and you will need to hire a lawyer. Examples of a complicated divorce matter include a request to divide property, receive alimony, payment of lawyers' fees and expenses, or if your spouse is in the military. In addition, if you wish to proceed under the law which presumes consent to divorce by the perpetrator of a personal injury crime against you, you cannot use these forms. Instead, you may get forms by visiting the state website at: http://www.pacourts.us/learn/representing-yourself/divorce-proceedings

This self-help kit is designed to be used to file and obtain a divorce where the parties have already been separated for at least one year.

BE WARNED THAT IF YOU FAIL TO RAISE A CLAIM FOR ALIMONY, DIVISION OF PROPERTY, LAWYERS' FEES OR EXPENSES IN YOUR DIVORCE COMPLAINT, YOU WILL LOSE ALL RIGHT TO MAKE SUCH CLAIMS ONCE THE DIVORCE DECREE IS ENTERED.

General information that you should know before filing for divorce:

The self-help packets provided by the court are only for simple, uncontested divorces. Generally, this means:

- the spouses must consent to a divorce OR be separated for at least 1 year;
- there are no custody or support disputes; and
- neither spouse wants to make a claim for property, money, or debt division against the other spouse.

MARITAL PROPERTY

If you want to pursue a simple, uncontested divorce, you must be sure that you and your spouse do not have any "marital property" that should be divided. Here are some examples of property that could be marital property, which spouses often do not consider:

- retirement/pension plans (other than Social Security)
- the increase in value of real estate owned by one spouse before the marriage
- property purchased during the marriage, but titled in only one spouse's name
- a bank account in one spouse's name

If you want property from your spouse, you must make a claim before the divorce is final. If you file for divorce, your spouse can make a claim for property or money against you. If you have any concerns about marital property, get advice from a lawyer about your particular situation before you file.

MARITAL DEBT

If either spouse created debt during the marriage, but before the date of separation, the court might order the other spouse to contribute to paying that debt. This is very important if the debt is only in one spouse's name. By using the simple, uncontested divorce forms, you are waiving any claims you might have to make the other spouse responsible for all or part of the marital debt that is not in their name.

SPOUSAL SUPPORT, ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE, and ALIMONY

Spousal support is support that you might be eligible to receive from a spouse after separation, but before a divorce is final. Alimony pendente lite is alimony paid only while the divorce case is pending in court and could help you pay an attorney or court costs. Alimony is paid after a divorce is final and depends upon a number of factors, including the length of the marriage and financial positions of both parties. If you have any concerns about support or alimony, get advice from a lawyer about your particular situation.

GETTING SOCIAL SECURITY BASED ON YOUR SPOUSE'S EARNINGS

Even though you are getting divorced, in the future you may be eligible to receive up to 50 percent of your spouse's Social Security benefits (retirement or disability) if:

- You were married at least 10 years;
- You have been divorced at least 2 years;
- You and your ex-spouse are at least 62;
- You have not remarried; and
- You are not entitled to Social Security benefits on your own earnings record that are more than the divorced spouse benefit.

Your ex-spouse does not have to be currently receiving Social Security benefits and does not have to agree that you get spousal benefits. It also doesn't matter if your ex-spouse gets remarried. The amount of Social Security benefits that your ex-spouse is entitled to will not be affected (reduced) by you receiving divorced spouse benefits. To check how divorced spouse benefits would apply to your specific situation, go to your local Social Security Office or check the website: www.ssa.gov.

Protecting Confidential Information - Here's How

A certification shall accompany each filing in accordance with the policy. A court or custodian is not required to review any filed document for compliance with this policy. Failure to comply may lead to imposed sanctions.

Confidential Information

Unless required by applicable authority, the following information shall not be included in any document filed with a court or custodian, except on a "Confidential Information Form" filed contemporaneously with the document.

1. Social Security Numbers
2. Financial Account Numbers Except an active financial account number may be identified by the last four digits when the financial account is the subject of the case and cannot otherwise be identified
3. Driver License Numbers
4. State identification (SID) Numbers
5. Minors' Names and Dates of Birth except when a minor is charged as defendant in a criminal matter (see 42 Pa.C.S. §6355)
6. Abuse Victim's Address and other Contact Information including employer's name, address, and work schedule, in family court actions as defined by Pa.R.C.P. No. 1931(a), except for victim's name

Confidential Documents

Unless required by applicable authority, the following documents shall be filed with a court or custodian with the "Confidential Document Form."

1. Financial Source Documents
2. Minors' Educational Records
3. Medical/Psychological Records
4. Children and Youth Services' Records
5. Marital Property Inventory and Pre-Trial Statement as provided in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1920.33
6. Income and Expense Statement as provided in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.27(c)
7. Agreements between the Parties as used in 23 Pa.C.S. §3105

These requirements do not apply to case types (e.g. juvenile, adoption) that are sealed or exempted from public access pursuant to applicable authority.

For forms and more information, reference the Case Records Public Access Policy Of The Unified Judicial System Of Pennsylvania at the website below.

STEP ONE: The Notice to Defend and Complaint with Verification, the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) and Counter-Affidavit and the Affidavit of Non-Military Service

A divorce case is started with the filing of a "Complaint". There are two forms that make up the Complaint; a "Notice to Defend and Claim Rights" must be attached on top, and the Complaint for Divorce, which ends with a "Verification", must be attached on the bottom. The Complaint is filed in the Prothonotary's Office. You must pay a filing fee (unless you have been granted a fee waiver, and this request is to be filed with your Complaint). The caption at the top of the forms includes the County's name, your name, your spouse's name, and the docket number assigned to your case by the Prothonotary. This caption must be identical on all documents filed in your case, no matter which party is filing a document.

When proceeding under Section 3301(d), which allows for divorce following a period of separation of at least one year, you must also file an "Affidavit Under Section 3301(d)" which sets forth the date of separation. There are two forms that make up this document, the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) and a Counter-Affidavit. The Counter-Affidavit is to be completed by your spouse, if they so choose. This affidavit must be served on the Defendant in the same manner as the Divorce Complaint. Therefore, if at the time you file the Complaint you and your spouse have been separated already for one year or more, it is recommended that the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) be filed and served with the Complaint.

Unless your spouse is represented by an attorney, when you file the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) you are also required to file an Affidavit of Non-Military Service, verifying that your spouse is not in the military service. Although a copy of this affidavit can be served on your spouse by regular mail, for convenience sake, you can include it with the other documents being served.

How to Complete Step 1

1. Complete all three pages of the Divorce Complaint following the detailed instructions on the next page.

2. Complete the first page of the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) and the caption only of the Counter-Affidavit, following the detailed instructions preceding the form.

3. Complete the Affidavit of Non-Military Service following the detailed instructions preceding the form.

2. After you have filled out the Complaint and both Affidavits, make two copies of each form. (If you are also requesting to have the filing fee waived, fill out a Petition to Proceed Without Payment of Fees and Costs and make one copy of that form.)

3. File the Complaint and Affidavits (and the fee waiver petition, if you are using it). Take the originals and the copies to the Prothonotary's office. They will time-stamp the originals and the copies. They will keep the original Complaint and Affidavits in their file and return the copies to you. (If you have filed a Petition to Proceed Without Payment of Fees and Costs, they will send the original petition with proposed Order to the Judge and keep your copy in their office; you will get your copy back once the Judge signs the Order, showing whether the petition was granted or denied. If the Petition is denied, the Prothonotary will send you a letter telling you the fee that must be paid.)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE DIVORCE COMPLAINT

1. At the top of the "Notice to Defend and Claim Rights" page, write your name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and your spouse's name on the line above the word "Defendant". That is all you write on this page.

2. At the top of the "Complaint for Divorce" page, write your name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and your spouse's name on the line above the word "Defendant".

3. In Paragraph (1), write your name on the line above the word "name". Write your street address, city, county, state and zip code, on the lines where indicated. In the last blank in this paragraph, above the word "date", write the date you began living at the address listed.

4. In Paragraph (2), write your spouse's name on the line above the word "name". Write your spouse's street address, city, county, state and zip code, on the lines where indicated. In the last blank in this paragraph, above the word "date", write the date your spouse began living at the address listed.

5. In Paragraph (3), put a checkmark on the line in front of the word "Plaintiff" if you have lived in Pennsylvania for at least the six months immediately before you are filing this Complaint. Also put a checkmark on the line in front of the word "Defendant" if your spouse has lived in Pennsylvania for at least the six months immediately before you are filing this Complaint.

6. In Paragraph (4), write the date you and your spouse were married, on the line above the word "date". Then write the city, county and state where you got married, on the lines where indicated.

7. In Paragraph 5, you are telling the Court whether there have been any prior cases filed for divorce, whether here in Lycoming County or in another county, state or country. If there have been no other divorce cases filed anywhere, write "none" on the blank line. If there was another case or cases filed, write both the place (county and state or, if in another country, the country) and any docket number.

8. On the last page, write the date you are signing, then sign on the line above the words "Plaintiff's signature". Write your name, street address, city, state and zip code, and telephone number where indicated.

NOTICE TO DEFEND AND CLAIM RIGHTS

You have been sued in Court. If you wish to defend against the clams set forth in the following pages, you must take prompt action. You are warned that if you fail to do so, the case may proceed without you and a decree of divorce or annulment may be entered against you by the Court. A judgment may also be entered against you for any other claim or relief requested in these papers by the Plaintiff. You may lose money or property or other rights important to you, including custody or visitation of your children.

When the ground for the divorce is indignities or irretrievable breakdown of the marriage, you may request marriage counseling. A list of marriage counselors is available in the Office of the Prothonotary at 48 West Third Street, Williamsport, Pennsylvania 17701.

IF YOU DO NOT FILE A CLAIM FOR ALIMONY, DIVISION OF PROPERTY, LAWYER'S FEES OR EXPENSES BEFORE A DIVORCE OR ANNULMENT IS GRANTED, YOU MAY LOSE THE RIGHT TO CLAIM ANY OF THEM.

YOU SHOULD TAKE THIS PAPER TO YOUR LAWYER AT ONCE. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE A LAWYER, GO TO OR TELEPHONE THE OFFICE SET FORTH BELOW. THIS OFFICE CAN PROVIDE YOU WITH INFORMATION ABOUT HIRING A LAWYER.

IF YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO HIRE A LAWYER, THIS OFFICE MAY BE ABLE TO PROVIDE YOU WITH INFORMATION ABOUT AGENCIES THAT MAY OFFER LEGAL SERVICES TO ELIGIBLE PERSONS AT A REDUCED FEE OR NO FEE.

FEE WAIVER INTRODUCTION

Usually, fees must be paid in order to file court documents. However, if you believe you do not have enough money to pay these fees, you may ask to file documents without paying the fees.

This form is used to make the request to let you file your divorce complaint for free. You will need to tell the Judge about your financial situation so the Judge can decide whether or not you should pay the fees.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FEE WAIVER PETITION

1. At the top of the first page, the "Order to Proceed Without Payment of Fees and Costs", write your name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and your spouse's name on the line above the word "Defendant". That is all you write on this page.

2. At the top of the second page, "Petition to Proceed Without Payment of Fees and Costs", write your name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and your spouse's name on the line above the word "Defendant".

3. Fill out the requested information in Paragraph 3.

4. At the bottom of the fourth page, print the date, then sign on the line next to the words "signature of Plaintiff" and print your name on the next line.

5. Make one copy of these three pages. You will take the original and copy to the Prothonotary's office when you file the Divorce Complaint. COPY FEES WILL NOT BE WAIVED and the cost of copies in the Office of the Prothonotary/ Clerk of Courts is $0.25 per page.

6. Once the judge reviews your information, the judge will make a decision. You will receive a copy of the Judge's Order in the mail. If the Judge grants your petition, you will not have to pay the fees. If the Judge denies your petition, you will have to pay the fees before your divorce action proceeds. In that case, you will receive a letter from the Prothonotary telling you the amount to pay.

STEP TWO: Service of the Complaint and Affidavits

After filing the Notice to Defend and Complaint, the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) and the Affidavit of Non-Military Service, these documents must be served on the other party within thirty (30) days of the date they are file-stamped. (If the other party does not live in Pennsylvania, the time requirement is extended to ninety (90) days.) Service must be made by either (1) acceptance of service, (2) regular and certified mail, or (3) personal service.

If service is not completed within 30 days (or 90 if the other party does not live in Pennsylvania), you must complete and file a Praecipe to Reinstate the Complaint. The date you file this praecipe re-starts the clock for service and you will have another 30 days to serve the other party (or 90 days if the other party does not live in Pennsylvania). If you again do not complete service within the new time period, you may file another praecipe to reinstate the Complaint. You may file this as many times as you need to, but if you continue to have problems completing service, it is recommended that you speak to an attorney. You may not proceed until proper service has been made.

How to Complete Step 2

1. Decide how you are going to serve the defendant and choose the correct form accordingly. Follow these instructions for the form you are using:

a) Acceptance of Service – Give the time-stamped copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint and both Affidavits to the defendant. After being given the documents, the defendant must sign the Acceptance of Service. Keep this Acceptance of Service, to be filed. MAKE SURE THE DEFENDANT DOES NOT SIGN/DATE THE ACCEPTANCE OF SERVICE BEFORE THE FILE-STAMPED DATE ON THE COMPLAINT.

b) Service by Mail – You will need to make an extra copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint and both Affidavits. Mail one of the time-stamped copies of the Notice to Defend and Complaint and both Affidavits to the defendant by regular mail and the other one by certified mail, return receipt requested, restricted delivery (you must specify this type of mailing at the Post Office). Wait for the green card to be returned to you and if it is signed by the defendant, make a copy of it for your records and tape the original, with the signature side showing, to a blank piece of paper. Fill out an Affidavit of Service by Mail and attach the paper with the green card on it.

If the certified mail is returned with the notation that it was refused, wait until it has been 15 days since you mailed the documents to the defendant and, if the regular mail envelope is not returned to you, fill out an Affidavit of Service by Mail. Make a copy of the refused certified mail envelope for your records and then attach the original envelope to the affidavit of service.

If the certified mail is returned with the notation that it was unclaimed, you must use another form of service.

c) Personal service – an adult, other than you, may personally hand the time-stamped copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint and the Affidavits to the other party. This may be the Sheriff, a private courier service, or any reliable third party. The person who hands the papers to your spouse must sign a completed Affidavit of Personal Service.

2. After you have completed service and have the completed Acceptance of Service, Affidavit of Service by Mail or the Affidavit of Personal Service, make one copy.

3. Take the original and the copy to the Prothonotary's office and file it. The Prothonotary's office will keep the original and return the copy to you – this is for your records.

ACCEPTANCE OF SERVICE INTRODUCTION

This form is used when you choose to serve the Divorce Complaint and Affidavits on your spouse by you, yourself, handing a time-stamped copy of the documents to him or her. After being given the documents, your spouse must sign the Acceptance of Service. (If your spouse won't sign an Acceptance of Service, you must choose one of the other methods of service.)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ACCEPTANCE OF SERVICE

1. At the top of the "Acceptance of Service", write your name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and your spouse's name on the line above the word "Defendant". Write your case number on the blank line after "No.". That is all you write on this page.

2. After you hand a time-stamped copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint, the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) with blank Counter-Affidavit and the Affidavit of Non-Military Service to your spouse, have him or her put a check mark next to the "I accept service" statement, write the date on the line next to the word "date" and sign on the line above the words "Defendant's Signature". Keep this Acceptance of Service, to be filed per the instructions in Step 2.

AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE BY MAIL INTRODUCTION

This form is used when you choose to serve the Divorce Complaint and Affidavits on your spouse by mail. Mail one of the time-stamped copies of the Notice to Defend and Complaint, the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) with blank Counter-Affidavit and the Affidavit of Non-Military Service to the defendant by regular mail and the other one by certified mail, return receipt requested, restricted delivery (you must specify this type of mailing at the Post Office). Wait for the green card to be returned to you and if it is signed by the defendant, make a copy of it for your records and tape the original, with the signature side showing, to a blank piece of paper. Fill out an Affidavit of Service by Mail and attach the paper with the green card on it.

If the certified mail is returned with the notation that it was refused, wait until it has been 15 days since you mailed the documents to the defendant. If the regular mailed envelope does not come back with the notation that it was undeliverable, fill out an Affidavit of Service by Mail. Make a copy of the certified mail envelope for your records and then attach the original envelope to the Affidavit of Service by Mail.

If the certified mail is returned with the notation that it was unclaimed, or the regular mailed envelope comes back with the notation that it was undeliverable, you must use a different form of service.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE BY MAIL

1. At the top of the "Affidavit of Service By Mail", write your name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and your spouse's name on the line above the word "Defendant". Write your case number on the blank line after "No.".

2. In Paragraph 1, write the date you mailed the Divorce Complaint, Section 3301(d) Affidavit with blank Counter-Affidavit and Affidavit of Non-Military Service to your spouse in the first blank, and your name in the second blank.

3. In Paragraph 2, check the appropriate line. If you check the first line, write the date Defendant signed the green card in the blank.

4. Write the date at the bottom, next to the word "Date" and sign the form on the line above the words "Plaintiff's signature".

5. Attach either the signed certified mail return receipt (green card) or the envelope showing Defendant's refusal, to the form.

AFFIDAVIT OF PERSONAL SERVICE INTRODUCTION

This form is used when you choose to serve the Divorce Complaint and Affidavits on your spouse by having a competent adult hand a time-stamped copy of the Notice to Defend and Complaint to him or her. You, yourself, cannot do this because "competent adult" is specifically defined in the Rules of Civil Procedure to mean someone at least 18 years of age who is not a party to the action and not a relative or employee of a party.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AFFIDAVIT OF PERSONAL SERVICE

1. At the top of the "Affidavit of Personal Service", write your name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and your spouse's name on the line above the word "Defendant". Write your case number on the blank line after "No.".

2. Give this form to the person who served the Complaint and Affidavits on your spouse after your spouse has been served. That person should write his or her name on the first line and write the date he or she handed the Complaint to your spouse on the second line. That person should then write the date of signing on the line next to the word "date" and sign on the line above the words "Signature of Person who Served Defendant". Keep this Affidavit of Service, to be filed per the instructions in Step 2.

PRAECIPE TO REINSTATE THE COMPLAINT INTRODUCTION

This form is used only when you are unable to serve the Complaint on the Defendant within 30 days (or 90 days if they do not live in Pennsylvania). The date you file this Praecipe re-starts the clock for service and you will have another 30 days (or 90 days if they don't live in Pennsylvania) to serve the Complaint.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PRAECIPE TO REINSTATE THE COMPLAINT

1. At the top of the "Praecipe to Reinstate the Complaint", write your name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and your spouse's name on the line above the word "Defendant". Write your case number on the blank line after "No.".

2. Write the date at the bottom, next to the word "Date" and sign the form on the line above the words "Plaintiff's signature".

3. File this form in the Prothonotary's office.

STEP THREE: Wait twenty (20) days

STEP FOUR: Complete and File a Notice of Intention to File the Praecipe to Transmit Record. Mail copy to spouse and file Certificate of Service.

After twenty days have passed since you served the defendant with the Complaint and Affidavits, check with the Prothonotary to see if your spouse filed any economic claims. (You can call the Prothonotary's office at 570-327-2251.) If your spouse did file economic claims, you should seek the advice of an attorney; you cannot proceed with requesting that the divorce decree be entered. If your spouse did not file any economic claims, you may proceed.

After twenty days have passed since you served the Complaint and Affidavits, you next file a Notice of Intention to File The Praecipe to Transmit Record, which provides notice to your spouse that you are about to ask the Court to enter the Divorce Decree.

Once you have filed the Notice, you will send a copy of the Notice to your spouse, along with another blank Counter-Affidavit. You must then file a Certificate of Service.

How to Complete Step 4

1. Complete the Notice of Intention to file Praecipe to Transmit Record according to the detailed instructions preceding the form. Make two copies of the Notice.

2. Take the Notice with blank Counter-Affidavit and the copies to the Prothonotary's office.

3. The Prothonotary will file-stamp all documents, keeping the originals and returning the copies to you.*

4. Mail one of the file-stamped copies of the Notice with blank Counter-Affidavit to your spouse by first class (regular) mail. Keep the other copy for your records.

5. Complete a Certificate of Service according to the detailed instructions preceding the form. Make one copy of this document.

6. Take the original and the copy to the Prothonotary's office.

7. The Prothonotary will file-stamp both, keeping the original and returning the copy to you.

8. You must again wait twenty (20) days from the date of mailing the Notice to your spouse before you can move to Step 5.

*(Note – you can fill out the Certificate of Service at the same time as you fill out the Notice, and file everything at once if you are sure you will put the copy of the Notice in the mail to your spouse just after filing everything.)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR NOTICE OF INTENTION TO FILE
THE PRAECIPE TO TRANSMIT RECORD

First page - Notice of Intention:

1. At the top of the "Notice of Intention", write the Plaintiff's name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and the Defendant's name on the line above the word "Defendant". (Just as they appear on the Complaint.) Write your case number on the blank line after "NO.".

2. On the blank line after the word "To:" write your spouse's name.

3. On the blank line in the first paragraph of the Notice, write the date which is at least 20 days from the date you are going to mail the Notice to your spouse. To calculate the 20-day period, start with the day after you mail the Notice as Day 1. (For example, if you are mailing the notice on April 1, write April 21 on the blank line.)

Second page - Blank Counter-Affidavit:

4. At the top of the "Counter-Affidavit", write the Plaintiff's name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and the Defendant's name on the line above the word "Defendant". (Just as they appear on the Complaint.) Write your case number on the blank line after "No.". Do not write anything else on this page. If your spouse chooses to file this document, he or she will fill it out.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO FILE
THE PRAECIPE TO TRANSMIT RECORD
UNDER SECTION 3301(d) OF THE DIVORCE CODE

To: _____

You have been sued in an action for Divorce. You have failed to answer the Complaint or file a counter-affidavit to the Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) of the Divorce Code. Therefore, on or after _____, the other party can request the court to enter a final decree in divorce or, if there are unresolved ancillary claims, an order approving grounds for divorce.

If you do not file an answer with your signature notarized or verified by the above date, the court can enter a final decree in divorce or, if there are unresolved ancillary claims, an order approving grounds for divorce.

Unless you have already filed with the court a written claim for economic relief, you must do so by the above date, or the court may grant the divorce or an order approving grounds for divorce, and you may lose forever the right to ask for economic relief. The filing of the form counter-affidavit alone does not protect your economic claims.

YOU SHOULD TAKE THIS PAPER TO YOUR LAWYER AT ONCE. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE A LAWYER, GO TO OR TELEPHONE THE OFFICE SET FORTH BELOW. THIS OFFICE CAN PROVIDE YOU WITH INFORMATION ABOUT HIRING A LAWYER. IF YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO HIRE A LAWYER, THIS OFFICE MAY BE ABLE TO PROVIDE YOU WITH INFORMATION ABOUT AGENCIES THAT MAY OFFER LEGAL SERVICES TO ELIGIBLE PERSONS AT A REDUCED FEE OR NO FEE.

COUNTER-AFFIDAVIT UNDER SECTION 3301(d) OF THE DIVORCE CODE

1. Check (a) or (b):

_____ (a) I do not oppose the entry of a divorce decree.

_____ (b) I oppose the entry of a divorce decree because:

Check any that apply:

_____ The parties to this action have not lived separate and apart for the required separation period: two years for parties who separated prior to December 5, 2016, and one year for parties who separated on or after December 5, 2016.

_____ The marriage is not irretrievably broken.

_____ There are economic claims pending.

2. Check (a), (b) or (c):

(a)_____ I do not wish to make any claims for economic relief. I understand that I may lose rights concerning alimony, division of property, lawyer's fees, costs and expenses, or other important rights if I do not claim them before a divorce is granted.

(b)_____ I wish to claim economic relief, which may include alimony, division of property, lawyer's fees, costs and expenses, or other important rights.

I UNDERSTAND THAT IN ADDITION TO CHECKING 2(b), I MUST ALSO FILE ALL OF MY ECONOMIC CLAIMS IN WRITING AND SERVE THEM ON THE OTHER PARTY. IF I FAIL TO DO SO BEFORE THE DATE SET FORTH ON THE NOTICE OF INTENTION TO FILE THE PRAECIPE TO TRANSMIT RECORD, THE DIVORCE DECREE OR ORDER APPROVING GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE MAY BE ENTERED WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE TO ME, AND I MAY BE UNABLE THEREAFTER TO FILE ANY ECONOMIC CLAIMS.

(c)_____ Economic claims have been raised and are not resolved.

I verify that the statements made in this counter-affidavit are true and correct. I understand that false statements herein are made subject to the penalties of 18 Pa.C.S. Section 4904, relating to unsworn falsification to authorities.

STEP FIVE: Wait twenty (20) days

STEP SIX: Complete and File Praecipe to Transmit Record with proposed Divorce Decree.

After twenty days have passed since you mailed the Notice of Intention and blank counter-affidavit, again check with the Prothonotary to see if your spouse filed any economic claims. (You can call the Prothonotary's office at 570-327-2251.) If your spouse did file economic claims, you should seek the advice of an attorney; you cannot proceed with requesting that the divorce decree be entered at this time. If your spouse did not file any economic claims, you may proceed.

How to Complete Step 6

1. Complete the Praecipe to Transmit Record according to the instructions on the next page but following these specific instructions for paragraphs 1, 3 and 5:
    a. In Paragraph 1, put a check mark on the line in front of §3301(d).
    b. In Paragraph 3, complete part (b) as follows:
        1. In sub-paragraph (b)(1), write the date you signed your "Affidavit Under Section 3301(d)" on the blank line.
        2. In sub-paragraph (b)(2), write the date you filed your "Affidavit Under Section 3301(d)" on the first blank line and either "acceptance of service", "certified mail" or "personal service" on the second blank line.
    c. In Paragraph 5, complete part (a) as follows:
        1. In sub-paragraph (a)(1), write the date the "Notice of Intention to File the Praecipe to Transmit Record and blank Counter-Affidavit" was mailed to your spouse, on the blank line.
        2. In sub-paragraph (a)(2), write "regular mail" on the blank line.

2. Complete the Decree of Divorce according to the detailed instructions preceding the form.

3. Make one copy of both the Praecipe to Transmit and the Decree.

4. Take both forms and the copies to the Prothonotary's office. Also take 2 self-addressed, stamped envelopes, one for you and one for your spouse.

5. You will be required to pay a fee of $100 for the decree, unless you were granted a few waiver when you filed the Complaint.

6. The Prothonotary will file-stamp all documents, keeping the originals and returning the copies to you. They will also keep the envelopes to mail the decree to each of you.

7. You and your spouse will receive a copy of the Decree in the mail after the Decree has been signed by a judge.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PRAECIPE TO TRANSMIT RECORD

1. At the top of the "Praecipe to Transmit Record", write the Plaintiff's name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and the Defendant's name on the line above the word "Defendant". (Just as they appear on the Complaint.) Write your case number on the blank line after "No.".

2. For Paragraphs 1, 3 and 5, follow the specific directions outlined in Step 6.

3. In Paragraph 2, write the date the Complaint was served and the manner of service, that is, whether it was served with an acceptance of service, by mail or by personal service.

4. In Paragraph 4, write "none" on the blank line.

5. Write the date at the bottom, next to the word "Date" and sign the form on the line above the words "Signature of Plaintiff".

OPTIONAL FORM

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO RESUME PRIOR SURNAME
INTRODUCTION

In 54 Pa.C.S. § 704, the law provides:

(a) General rule.--Any person who is a party in a divorce action may, at any time prior to or subsequent to the entry of the divorce decree, resume any prior surname used by him or her by filing a written notice to such effect in the office of the prothonotary of the county in which the divorce action was filed or the decree of divorce was entered, showing the caption and docket number of the proceeding in divorce.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM

1. At the top of the "Notice of Intention", write the Plaintiff's name on the line above the word "Plaintiff" and the Defendant's name on the line above the word "Defendant". (Just as they appear on the Complaint.) Write your case number on the blank line after "No.".

2. On the blank line after the words "Notice is hereby given that I", write your name.

3. On the next blank line, after the word "the", write the word "Plaintiff" or "Defendant", depending on which party you are in the divorce action.

4. Depending on the timing of your Notice, that is, whether you are changing to a prior surname before the decree is entered or after the decree is entered, put a check mark in front of the appropriate statement and write the corresponding date. That is, if you are filing the notice before the decree is entered, choose the first option and write the date the Complaint was filed; if you are filing the notice after the decree is entered, choose the second option and write the date the decree in divorce was granted.

5. Write the surname you intend to resume on the blank line after the words "hereby elect to resume the prior surname of".

6. Write the date at the bottom, next to the word "Date" and sign the form twice on the lines provided, once using your current surname and again using your resumed surname, as marked.

7. Make one copy of the Notice. Take the original and the copy to the Prothonotary's office.

8. The Prothonotary will file-stamp both, keeping the original and returning the copy to you for your records. You will be required to pay a filing fee ($14.75 as of June 1, 2021). You may now begin using the prior surname given in the Notice.
